COMMENTS: Jay Dardenne, Jr. request a waiver and states the following: The report was completed and timely filed by hand delivery to the Board of Ethics on February 17, 2020. A stamped copy of the candidate's report page is enclosed. He inadvertently instructed his staff to submit this by hand delivery to ensure that it was timely filed. As soon as he was notified by staff that the hand-delivered report was insufficient. He filed it electronically on February 24, 2020. Re: Waiver Request
John L. (Jay) Dardenne, Jr.

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

This will acknowledge receipt of the Late Fee Assessment Order, requiring payment of $600 for late filing of the February 18, 2020 supplemental report, a copy of which is enclosed. This is to request a waiver of the assessment. The report was completed and timely filed by hand delivery to the Board of Ethics on February 17, 2020. A stamped copy of the candidate's report page is enclosed. I inadvertently instructed my staff to submit this by hand delivery to ensure that it was timely filed. As soon as I was notified by staff that the hand-delivered report was insufficient I filed it electronically on February 24, 2020. The late filing was due to oversight and inadvertence on my part and was immediately corrected when brought to my attention. Since, in good faith, the hand-delivered report was filed in a timely manner, I would respectfully request that the late fee be waived. Thank you for your attention to this matter and please let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Very truly yours,

Jay Dardenne
